Message

Pakistan is the fourth largest cotton producer, third largest consumer and second largest yarn exporter of the world. Cotton and textile exports are the backbone of Pakistan's economy. Being cotton based economy, Pakistan aims to elevate its share in billion dollar value added global market and is under inescapable obligation to re-orient its market strategy to provide competitive edge to its textile sector.

2. Dissemination of statistics in the above aspect is indeed a remarkable assignment that Directorate of Marketing & Economic Research of Pakistan Central Cotton Committee has been doing through its various publications. The Directorate makes available the data and facts on all aspects of cotton and keeps the stakeholders in the country updated.

3. Collection of statistics is a scientific process whereas, presenting that data according to user's choice and need is an art, which needs special training and skills. Looking at the "COTISTICS" it seems that Directorate of Marketing & Economics Research of Pakistan Central Cotton Committee is blessed by that art. Dissemination of such a data on cotton is of prime importance for policy formulators.

4. This publication contains valuable information and I am hopeful that it can be utilized for academic, research, policy input quality/standards, decision making, investment and trade at local and global level.

COTISTICS

Message

Statistics play pivotal role in decision making, effective planning, price determination and maintaining the strategic stocks. Collection of authentic cotton related statistics is a challenging task considering the diversity and complexity of cotton value chain. Dissemination of statistical data to all the stake holders, policy makers, researchers and academician has remained key function of the Directorate of Marketing & Economic Research.

Publication of Annual Cotton Statistical Bulletin (COTISTICS) is one of the key publications, used as reference data book and a bench mark of the Directorate of Marketing & Economic Research of PCCC, which covers cotton related national and international statistics. Many researcher's publications relied on the data published in the COTISTICS.

In order to create convenience for researchers, the soft version of cotistitcs also available on the website www.pccc.gov.pk.

Minds and figures behind COTISTICS deserve special applaud for their un-interrupted publication for 47 years. Pakistan Central Cotton Committee will continue its all publications and will be catering stake holders country-wide.

COTISTICS

Foreword

Availability of accurate data and facts on cotton are pre-requisite for indentifying main areas of research, determination of priorities and formulation of some research and extension programs. Being a important function of PCCC, the Directorate of Marketing & Economic Research has since its inception, accorded high priority on correction and compilation of data over the years and has increased the reliance of other organizations upon PCCC for regularly providing substantial information on all aspects of cotton production, marketing & trade. The Directorate of Marketing & Economic Research has been disseminating cotton statistics to the stakeholders through its regular publications. This imperatively needs disseminating the required information to all concerned in the form of a statistical bulletin namely “COTISTICS” which since its first appearance in 1971 has been rendering useful service and has earned commendation from public and private sector organizations.

“COTISTICS” is published annually and the coverage in this bulletin has expanded steadily. The main items include cotton area, production, yield, exports, imports, ginning, pressing, stocks, cotton products, prices and international statistics. The data in the tables are expressed in both English and Metric Systems and all time series are for the cotton season i.e. (August to July), unless otherwise specified.

The Pakistan Central Cotton Committee is grateful to all Government Semi- Government and Private Organizations and specially to the Federal Ministry of National Food Security & Research, Provincial Agriculture Departments, Pakistan Bureau of Statistics, Textile Commissioner’s Organization, Karachi Cotton Association, Pakistan Cotton Ginners Association, All Pakistan Yarn Merchants Association, Karachi Grain and Seed Merchants’ Group of various Market Committees for their help and support without which this publication would not have been possible.

The officers/ staff of the Directorate of Marketing & Economic Research have been working very hard to accomplish this task. Their work is highly appreciable.
